Pres. Dan Detrick

The world is spinning faster and faster every day. It seems like the football season just started. Well, it is over now, but fear not, spring training is here in Fort Myers. We have two great teams: The Twins and the Red Sox. The weather is fantastic, and the hotdogs are delicious. You should feel proud that our Rotary Club played a big part in keeping them here in Fort Myers when you are out there watching the Red Sox.

I hope you could attend last Tuesday's meeting to hear from our member, Amy Turner. As Executive Director of Sally J Pimentel Deaf & Hard of Hearing Center, she taught us to use sign language and gave a unique insight into the daily challenges of the hearing impaired.

We are pivoting this week and changing our scheduled program. The insurance panel was a big hit with our club, and this week, we will have a real estate panel. Tom Woodyard, Angel Bracero, Sarah Mack, and Tom Kiessling headline this panel. Tom Woodyard is a recognized leader known for his energy, integrity, and accountability. He is a Florida-licensed real estate salesman and principal of Woodyard & Associates. Tom's career in real estate dates back to 1987, and his knowledge of the Southwest Florida market is unparalleled. Angel Bracero is a Florida transplant employed as a Realtor at Treeline Realty Corp. in Fort Myers. Sarah Mack is a commercial lender at Crews Bank & Trust. She can do everything from real estate to SBA loans. Tom Kiessling grew up in Frankfurt, Germany, and relocated to Florida in 2012. Together with Thomas Kiessling, they established "Kiessling Luxury Homes," brokered by Compass. Their primary mission and greatest passion revolve around providing optimal support to individuals in their quest for their next home or investment property.
