

Dylan Geraci

Blake and Kathy Collingsworth started Josh the Otter Water Safety Program to honor the memory of their two-year-old son Joshua, who died on June 4th, 2008, after falling into the family pool.

Josh the Otter Water Safety Program, aims to educate children and adults worldwide about water safety through drowning prevention campaigns and early childhood water safety training. Rotary Clubs worldwide help honor the memory of Josh Collingsworth by teaching early childhood water safety training.

Pres. Dan Detrick

The Rotary year is progressing swiftly. Our President-Elect, Steve Belcher, made a significant stride for our club by attending PETS (President-Elect Training) last weekend in Orlando. His learnings and newfound enthusiasm to lead our club in 2024-2025 are invaluable. I trust everyone relished our speaker, David Dorsey, and will delve into his books, "Fourth Down in Dunbar." and "Dunks, Threes, and Palm Trees". I personally acquired a signed copy and am eager to dive into it.

This week's speakers, Dylan Geraci and Josh the Otter will bring a unique perspective. Will it be Dylan Geraci as Josh the Otter? The intrigue is high, but attending the meeting is the only way to find out. If you've had the pleasure of hearing Dylan speak, you know his passion is enough to fill a football stadium.

I hope you take pride in being a member of our club and recognize it as a cause worth championing. Your satisfaction with our club is paramount. Consider the potential benefits for your friends and associates and invite them to a meeting. Membership in our club is a privilege and an honor, and I hope you share this sentiment.

See you Tuesday!

Vicki Stephan presenting a grant to Jessica Stanfield, Director of A.N.A.'s Friends. A.N.A.'s Friends serves Abused Neglected and Abandoned children in Southwest Florida. Formerly known as the Guardian ad Litem Foundation – 20th Judicial Circuit, A.N.A.'s Friends works tirelessly to provide these vulnerable young individuals with the support, care, guidance and resources they need to overcome adversity and build brighter futures.

Happy Birthday Rotarian!
